

LAYNE R. WROBLEWSKI, CGMA, CPA
Manager, Indirect Tax
Devon Energy

Layne is Manager-Tax within the Devon Energy Tax Group. In this role he is responsible for the management of Devon's Ad Valorem and Sales & Use Tax portfolio comprised of $110-million in property and sales/use taxes for over $3-billion of market value & $2-billion in capital expense within New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas, and Wyoming. He has worked for 3-Fortune 500 companies including 2 as the Manager of Ad Valorem Tax. In those capacities he and his teams have been responsible for reducing ad valorem and sales/use taxes over $250-million within the past 18-years.

Layne formerly worked at EY where he was a Tax Compliance Specialist leading a former F150 retail distribution company's excise, sales, & use tax compliance of over 7,000 returns/450 accrual accounts within multiple jurisdictions.

In his capacity at Devon he has been responsible for the ad valorem tax implementation of the company's ERP and was directly involved in the planning and execution of insourcing the company's ad valorem tax practice. Since 2010 Layne has implemented a series of technological advances within tax including OCR technology, paperless files, KPI analyses, and database transformation.

Layne has a Bachelor of Business Administration with a Finance emphasis from the University of Oklahoma. He has taught numerous courses and provided multiple presentations involving financial statement reviews and property taxation. He is a CPA licensed in Oklahoma and a member of the American Institute of CPAs, Institute for Professionals in Taxation, and the Tax Executives Institute where he serves on the National State and Local Tax Committee.
