

KERRY ALBRIGHT
Tax Business Partner
Chevron

Kerry Albright, based in Houston, TX, is a Tax Business Partner in the State Tax Legal team, providing indirect tax planning advice and counsel for Chevron businesses. Previously, Kerry was Manager of Property & Severance Tax for Chevron, a position she held since 2018, where she was responsible for directing Chevron's domestic property and severance tax activities including compliance, valuation, incentives, appeals and litigation, and legislation.

Albright joined Chevron's Property Tax Department as a Senior Property Tax Representative in 2012. Prior to joining Chevron, Albright worked property tax matters for Southern Union and BP America. She has over 24 years of state and local tax experience.

Kerry has been actively engaged in various industry trade association tax committees and taxpayer associations throughout her career and has served as chair and board member on many of those committees. She currently serves as Chair of the Texas Oil and Gas Association Tax Committee, where she previously chaired the Property Tax Committee for several years. Kerry was also recently named a Board Member for Texas Taxpayers and Research Association and remains actively engaged with the Western States Petroleum Association, Houston IPT Local Luncheon Committee, and has been an instructor for the IPT Personal Property Tax School.

She graduated from Trinity University in 1998 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, with a concentration in International Business and a minor in Spanish.

Email: kerryalbright@chevron.com
<https://www.chevron.com/>