

DALE CRAYMER
President
Texas Taxpayers and Research Association

Dale Craymer is the President of the Texas Taxpayer and Research Association (TTARA), a non-profit organization of businesses and individuals interested in fiscal and other public policy issues. Mr. Craymer has been TTAR's President since September 2009, when he was promoted from his position as Chief Economist. A graduate of the University of Texas' Plan II program, with a master's degree in Economics, Mr. Craymer served as Chief Revenue Estimator under Comptroller Bob Bullock and was Budget Director for Texas Governor Ann Richards as well as Deputy Director under Governor George W. Bush. He is a member of Texas' Business Tax Advisory Committee and the National Taxpayers Conference and has previously served on the executive boards of both the National Association of State Budget Officers and the Council of Governor's Policy Advisors.

Email: dcraymer@ttara.org
<https://ttara.org/>