

The special election for Senate District 6 is in full swing! Early voting is underway, and we need your help. This election will have a huge impact on Texas oil and natural gas, so please remember to vote early and encourage your friends, family and co-workers to do the same.

Pol. Ad Paid For By TXOGA PAC

The Texas Oil & Gas Association Good Government Committee has endorsed State Representative Carol Alvarado. Chairman Carol Alvarado (D-Houston) was first elected to the legislature in 2008. Prior to her election, Alvarado worked in City Hall as a Senior Executive Assistant to Houston Mayor Lee P. Brown. She also served as a legislative assistant to Congressman Gene Green in Washington D.C., and as a consultant in economic and community development in East End neighborhoods. Alvarado served on the Houston City Council, District I, from 2002-2007. As a member of the Texas House of Representatives, she currently chairs the Urban Affairs Committee and serves on the Select Committee on Opioids and Substance Abuse; and Higher Education.

Alvarado is a graduate of the University of Houston and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. She received her MBA from the University of Houston.

Early voting continues until Friday, December 7th and election day is Tuesday, December 11th.

As you know, we need strong leaders who will make decisions for our industry based on sound science and good judgment.

As we saw with the general election, this election cycle is proving to be very competitive and every vote really does count. With so much on the line, we need your voice to be heard. So please get out and vote for our industry endorsed candidate and pass this information along to friends, family and coworkers in SD 6!